II. Scope and Content Note

The John H. Buchanan Papers (1938-1953) deal with his tenure on the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention and sub-committees including the Allocation, Administration, Capital Needs Survey, and Theological Education Survey. The collection contains 1.5 linear feet of materials in three document boxes, and includes articles, budgets, reports, financial plans, surveys, and correspondence. Materials are arranged alphabetically and then chronologically.

Much of the collection relates to either Convention finances or finances for other agencies. In addition, some materials also cover the Woman's Missionary Union, World Council of Churches, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and the establishment of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Other materials deal with the concerns about the financial impact of World War II on the Convention and its function. Dr. Buchanan corresponded with several prominent Baptist leaders including E. P. Alldredge, Walter Pope Binns, Austin Crouch, J. E. Dillard, John L. Hill, T. L. Holcomb, John R. Jester, H. G. Lindsay, Duke K. McCall, Charles E. Maddry, Kathleen Mallory, T. W.
