Processed by Marian Keegan
Date Completed May 1975

I. Historical Sketch

These are the papers of Herschel H. Hobbs (1907--J outstanding Southern Baptist clergyman, author, dynamic speaker and denominational leader.

He pastored churches in Kentucky, Alabama, Louisiana and Oklahoma. His longest and perhaps most outstanding pastorate was First Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

He served Southern Baptists in many and very valuable ways through many years. More frequently than any other person he spoke on the "Baptist Hour," a weekly radio program sponsored by Southern Baptists. He is a prolific writer, having authored already 36 books, many tracts and articles even though for 40 years he was a busy pastor of large churches. His influence has been greatly felt throughout Southern Baptist life. He was president of the Southern Baptist Convention May 1961--May 1963 and has served on numerous boards and committees. His work as chairman of the "Baptist Faith and Message" committee was particularly outstanding.

Because of his long and valuable work among Southern Baptists, not only his papers as president of the Southern Baptist Convention, but other papers of his were requested for the archives of the Historical Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The arrangement of these papers is by subject headings.

Linear feet of shelf space occupied: 37
Approximate number of items: 37,400

This material is available for research in the archives of Dargan-Carver Library, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee. Among the Sunday School Board tapes and recordings collection is a tape R5293t Dob entitled "Personal illustrations from Preachers" in which Hobbs, among others, tells about his life and work. Also have oral history tapes of interviews with Hobbs.

II. Scope and Content Note

The dates of these papers are 1949-72 and consist of: articles he wrote, "Baptist Hour" sermons and correspondence, Baptist World Alliance materials, biographical information, the manuscript of one of his books--Baptist Faith and Message, correspondence about the many books he authored, book reviews, general correspondence, materials about the Crusade of the Americas, correspondence about the Elliot controversy concerning the book The Message of Genesis and materials about the work of First Baptist Church, Oklahoma City which was his longest pastorate. Included also are materials about his work with Oklahoma Baptist statewide affairs, Oklahoma Baptist University, Oklahoma country simultaneous crusades 1950 -72, revival engagements, other speaking engagements and Baptist Education Study Task Materials.

One of the largest sections of materials is his sermons. Another large part of these papers deals with his work as president of the Southern Baptist Convention and as a member of many boards and committees of this Convention. There are interesting folders of materials about his several trips abroad 1958-70.

His correspondents include the top names in Southern Baptist affairs during these years. Through his correspondence one is made aware of Hobbs' vital involvement in Southern Baptist life, national affairs, state Baptist affairs, local Baptist and civic affairs. The general correspondence is arranged chronologically. I have tried to indicate the location of some subjects of interest to Baptists through notations about these in the container list of the general correspondence.

Hobbs shows an awareness of, interest in, compassion and appreciation for his fellow human beings through his correspondence. He was a thoughtful friend remembering all sorts of special occasions in the lives of persons whom he knew. Only a sample of certain kinds of correspondence could be kept: (1) about speaking engagements, (2) congratulatory letters, (3) letters suggesting or recommending persons for appropriate work.

His letters in the general correspondence files explaining doctrinal questions are interesting and important. Often he was asked for information on church finance and organization--he seemed glad to share his knowledge and experience in these fields. In these letters he writes jokes to his friends.

His letters to family and friends in the general correspondence section reveal loving and caring relationships.
