HIGHT C MOORE PAPERS

AR. 69

I. Historical Note:

Hight C Moore was born on January 28, 1871 in Globe, a small community in Caldwell County, North Carolina. Moore attended Globe Academy and later Wake Forest College where he received his B.A. in 1890. Also in 1890, Moore was ordained by Globe Baptist Church, and received his first pastorate at the Baptist church in Morehead City, N.C. where he served until 1893. Hight C Moore resigned as pastor in Morehead to attend the seminary in Rochester, New York, but not before marrying Laura Miller Peterson on May 2, 1893. From the end of 1893 until 1904, Moore held several pastorates throughout North Carolina and became actively involved in the North Carolina State Baptist Convention where he held several positions including assistant recording secretary from 1898-1907 and Sunday School secretary from 1904-1907.

In 1907, Moore was offered a position with the Sunday School Board in Nashville, Tennessee and resigned from the Sunday School Department in North Carolina. However, before leaving North Carolina for Tennessee, he was offered the job as editor of the Biblical Recorder, North Carolina's Baptist state paper, and turned down the position in Nashville. Moore served as editor for the Biblical Recorder until 1917 and during his time there he was a strong supporter of education and received his D.D. Degree from Wake Forest College. In 1914 Moore was selected as Secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention and held the position until 1946.

In 1917 the Sunday School Board in Nashville offered Moore a position as co-editorial secretary with E.C. Dargan. This time Moore took the job in Nashville and his duties included being the managing editor for the board and also the editor of Home Department Magazine and the weekly publications of the Sunday School board. In 1927, Dargan resigned from his position and Moore became the editorial secretary of the Board.

While in Nashville, Moore was involved with many publications including his Points for Emphasis (1918-1943) which was a Sunday School Lesson commentary. Moore served as editor of The Teacher for sixteen years and wrote numerous articles, pamphlets, and books. He also served on the International Sunday School Lesson Committee for nearly twenty years and from 1929-1943, Moore gave a weekly broadcast for the Committee on Nashville's WSM.

Moore retired from the Sunday School board in 1943 and moved with his wife to Ridgecrest North Carolina where the couple's only son resided. Moore died in Ridgecrest on May 24, 1957.

II. Scope and Content Note:

The Hight C Moore Collection consists of 35 linear feet of material and is located in 69 boxes. The collection contains material dating from 1884 to 1956 and documents Hight C Moore's career as a pastor and as an editor for the North Carolina Baptist Sunday School Board, The Biblical Recorder, and the Southern Baptist Convention. The collection includes Moore's correspondence, clippings of articles written by Moore for numerous publications, clippings written by other authors for various publications, a scrapbook from Moore's trip to the Holy Land in 1927, Bibles which belonged to Moore and his wife, and his poetry.

Also in the collection are biographical files on various individuals including Clifton J. Allen, Austin Crouch, E.C. Dargan, A.C. Dixon, E.Y. Mullins, and L.R. Scarborough. These files usually include clippings or letters about the individuals.

Photographs of family and coworkers are found in the collection. Included are numerous images of the Ridgecrest Conference Center in North Carolina.

Also included in the collection are Bible commentaries of Hight C Moore. Each book of the Bible is located in its own folder and these folders are sorted in the order in which they appear in the Bible.

In addition, the collection is largely composed of Hight C. Moore's other writings. These writings include his articles, manuscript drafts, sermon notes, blackboard outlines from his time as a Sunday School teacher, and his Points for Emphasis. Included in these are notes and research Moore collected for his work A Thirst for God.

The collection also includes material related to the Baptist World Alliance, the history of the Southern Baptist Convention, International Council on Religious Education, arrangements for the Southern Baptist Convention, and the executive committee of the SBC.

The breadth of Moore's influence in the Southern Baptist Convention is also reflected in the individuals, many of whom were leaders in the Southern Baptist Convention, with whom he corresponded. Included in the correspondence files of the Hight C Moore Collection are files from J.B. Lawrence, Kathleen Mallory, Victor Masters, E.C. Routh, John R. Sampey, William L. Poteat, J.W. O'Hara, L.L. Gwaltney, B.W. Spilman, George W. Truett, I.J. Van Ness, and Rufus Weaver.

Norma Moore, daughter-in-law of Hight C Moore donated the collection to the Southern Baptist Historical Library and Archives in 1960.

The collection is divided into three sections: Subject Files, Correspondence, and Books, notebooks, and scrapbooks. Each series is arranged alphabetically.
