CLIFTON JUDSON ALLEN PAPERS

AR 795-221

I. Biographical Sketch

Clifton Judson Allen was born November 7, 1901 in a small farming community in Latta, Dillon County, South Carolina, the last of seven children of William Benjamin Allen, a farmer, and Theodisia (Cox) Allen, a housewife. He attended local grammar schools and graduated from Oalcho High School in 1919. He graduated Furman University with a B.A. degree in 1923 and from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary with the Th.M. degree in 1928 followed by the Ph.D. degree in 1932.

Allen was converted and baptized at the Catfish Creek Baptist Church in the Pee Dee Association and ordained by them in 1926.

From 1923-1926 he was principal of Minturn High School in his hometown of Latta, South Carolina and from 1928 to 1931 was a tutor in the department of Greek New Testament at the seminary. From 1926 to 1937 he was pastor of the McHenry Baptist Church, McHenry, Kentucky; Utica Baptist Church, Utica, Kentucky; First Baptist Church Fairmont, North Carolina and the Western Avenue Baptist Church, Statesville, North Carolina.

In mid 1937 he accepted a position as associate editorial secretary at the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville, Tennessee where he served for 31 years until his retirement in 1968. Here he made the most significant contribution of his career to the cause of Sunday Schools and religious education. The Editorial Department, as it was called then, was responsible for preparing a style manual which dictated the editorial style of all Board publications, securing copyrights on the Board's printed materials and giving permission for their republication and use in other publications, serving as editor for special projects like encyclopedias and commentaries and interpreting the Board's ministry of Bible teaching and Christian education. In 1945 he was elected editorial secretary following in the footsteps of Hight C Moore and W. R. White, both able denominational statesmen.

In these years his ministry expanded to include a weekly radio program on WSM of teaching the Sunday School lesson and writing and editing for over 20 years, Points for Emphasis. In the final ten years with the Board he made several trips abroad, visiting sixteen countries with Southern Baptist career missionaries and others, speaking, teaching and promoting the cause of Sunday Schools and religious education. He also found time to represent the Board on the Uniform Lessons Series committee, Commission on Teaching, Baptist World Alliance and he served the Southern Baptist Convention as recording secretary. Allen wrote several books and contributed scores of articles to Baptist and other periodicals.

After his retirement from the Baptist Sunday School Board, Allen returned to live at Winston-Salem, North Carolina and serve as adjunct professor at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

In 1981 his beloved wife, Hattie Bell (McCracken) Allen died. In 1982 he married Mrs. Rosiland Sheppard Street, widow of a successful pastor. In 1985 he witnessed the declining health and death of his first-born son and namesake, Judson Boyce Allen.

Clifton J. Allen died of cancer in Winston-Salem, North Carolina May 5, 1986 at the age of 84. He was survived by his second wife, a daughter and son and seven grand children. His funeral was conducted at First Baptist Church,

Nashville, Tennessee where he held membership for forty years. Burial was in Woodlawn Memorial Gardens in Nashville, Tennessee.

II. Scope and Content Notes

The Clifton Judson Allen Papers is an extensive collection of personal and work related papers from the early 1920's to shortly before the time of his death in May, 1986.

The papers begin when he is principal of a small school and continue through his education at Furman University and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and his illustrious career until his retirement years in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. They contain information about his early pastorates beginning with the church at McHenry, Kentucky through Fairmont and Western Avenue in North Carolina. His papers expand with his writing in the 1930's for publications for the Sunday School Board in Nashville and his eventual employment by the Board in 1937, his elevation to editorial secretary in 1945 and his retirement in 1968.

Also included in the Allen papers are materials from his long tenure as secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention, his work with the Baptist World Alliance, his work on the Committee for Uniform Lessons and his world travels.

Several series are contained in Allen's papers: some materials from the collection of Hight C Moore, Allen's predecessor as editorial secretary and some materials from Dr. Gaines Stanley Dobbins papers, his predecessor in the Bible Teaching and Training Committee of the Baptist World Alliance. Additionally there are materials related to the early reference by the Sunday School Board of the Revised Standard Version of the scriptures, the "Becoming Incident", the Ralph Elliott controversy over The Message of Genesis and his work with The Encyclopedia of Southern Baptists.

The collections contains personal and work related correspondence and official papers, minutes of various associations and work group meetings, newspaper and periodical clippings and seven and one half linear feet of commentary on the scriptures, mostly written as lesson development, representing every book in the Old and New Testaments except Jude.

Prominent persons whose correspondence or other materials are contained or referenced in the collection are: J. McKee Adams, Theodore F. Adams, Judson Boyce Allen, O.
